Warwick County Park

Event No. AT17/107953

382 County Park Rd., Pottstown, PA 19465. 10K/5K, Rated 2C. In the 18th and 19th centuries, Warwick’s woodlands provided much of the raw timber that was burned to create charcoal for the region’s iron furnaces and forges. The walk goes through hardwood forests, meadows, and wetlands beside French Creek. Nearby is Saint Peter’s Village, a small late 19th century industrial “company village” at the Falls of French Creek. This walk is the least challenging of the four events. Not suitable for strollers or wheelchairs.

Special Programs – Boardwalks, Bridges, Honoring Our Flag, National Register of Historic Places, Treasure Hunt, Trekking with Trees, You’ll Never Walk Alone.
